BECAUSE UNEXPECTED EVENTS HAPPEN.

Scenario: In Louisiana, an insured's teenage son was driving his younger sister and her friend when he lost control of the vehicle and hit a telephone pole. The friend permanently lost the use of her right arm and suffered severe brain injuries resulting in permanent brain damage.

Outcome: The claim was settled for more than the insured's auto policy would cover. Without the Personal Umbrella Policy, the insured would have had to pay $1 million out of their own pocket.
